Soak in The Themes of The Collection

As with anything, there starts with a flicker of imagination and a yearning. This helped guide our new collections, where we not only consulted authorities on trend and inside market knowhow, but engaged with our key muses, infatuations and obsessions, now brought to life through SS22. We get all warm inside thinking about them, so we wanted to share them with you:

Take Me to The Med

Seaside vignettes, washed out pastoral colours, a late afternoon sun drenched courtyard that's sparsely decorated with pots, planters or lanterns. A fresco dining at whichever time suits you. These are some of the images and ideals that helped us handpick a variety of products that link us with the essence of Mediterranean life. With a colour palette focussing on pale to lush greens, zesty lemon yellows and muted neutrals and textures of varnished ceramics, bamboo and earthy organic wood. Our goal was to bring integral continental-classic feeling pieces to your home.

Easy Summer

Seek the shade, take that longer lunch with friends, take pleasure in the simplicity of the season. This time of year isn't about exertion in any way shape or form. This grouping of pieces for the home, and time spent on the decking or patio, holds dear the idea that summer should come easy, and these pieces celebrate that. With plenty of nods to oceanside life, earthy hillsides that lead to secluded beaches and the patterns and designs that punctuate summer served simply, we've curated a bevy of products that will see the light of day, each year every year. Soak in a palette that boasts deep blues, earthy browns and terracotta to a mix of pleasing neutral shades. Enjoy textured glassware, rippled vases and uniquely pitted dining ceramics as well as soft furnishings.

Golden Hour

Dappled light streams in through the window, dusk approaches and the tone revels in its ambers, dusky pinks and shady taupes. Raise a glass because the day has been nothing but memorable with fantastic company. This selection of products is bound together with feelings around that all-important sociable hour of hazy low light, a special moment before the sun dips beneath the horizon. Lightplay through transluscents patter table linen whilst conversation and laughter prevail. We've built out these pieces with a palette focussed on deep greyed browns, terracottas and broody pinks. Find hammered glassware, sleek ceramics, design led textures and a look informed as much by contemporary art and design as it is the golden hour itself.

Shop Art Prints & Frames by renowned artists, or add flourish to your space with unique statement vases like the Chelburn Plant Pot/Vase, pictured.
